New Brunswick Scottish-Cultural Association (NBSCA) forms new Chapter in Charlotte County.

The New Brunswick Scottish-Cultural Association is proud to announce the formation of its newest Regional Chapter yesterday in St. Stephen, New Brunswick. As a continuing part of the Association's mandate to improve accessibility and communications within the Scottish community of New Brunswick, Past President Dan Taylor chaired this first organizational meeting on November 1st at the St Stephen Fire Hall in St. Stephen. NBSCA Executive members Mel Fitton (President), Della Shepherd (Secretary) were among the crowd of enthusiastic supporters.

Long time Charlotte County resident Leland Scott has been appointed Chapter Chair and nominations were received from the floor-electing Chapter executive members Carolyn Stewart (Vice-Chair), John Gardner (Treasurer), Nancy Coulton (Secretary) and Dale Greenlaw (Membership Secretary). The NBSCA is very excited about the formation of its third Regional Chapter here in Charlotte County", commented Mel Fitton after the meeting. "Charlotte is an area of the Province rich in history and traditions of our Scottish ancestors. Efforts by this new Chapter will help to keep these traditions alive and encourage many of the younger generation to get better connected with their culture".
